In addition, we learn about Mandela's winning, resilient personality during those hard times -- and how it served to forge a man capable of liberating his country from racial oppression.	652

Pierre Etaix is an obscure and interesting figure in film history. Virtually unknown in the United States, Etaix carved out an odd niche for himself with his French comedies of the 1960's. In a way, the comic was simply following a course set for him by much more famous screen comedians. He is often considered the "French Buster Keaton," a moniker that is quite appropriate. Like Keaton, Etaix often wears a dead-pan mask with subtle and melancholic expressions. Also, his comedy borrows from Buster a concern for the individual at odds with a mad, conspiring universe.	661

947	25/04/13	Thu	Life and Death of Colonel Blimp, The	1943	UK	Powell, Michael	Quarterly Classic									Powell and Pressburger's glorious epic, dazzlingly restored. The film's compassionate detailing of the adult life of Clive Candy, from Boer War spy to a blustering old buffer, is moving and surprising. It is desperately sad, too, in its suggestion that time, age and loss make dinosaurs of us all. But its brilliance lies in its insistence that even dinosaurs deserve empathy and maybe even love.	947

957	10/09/13	Tue	Repulsion	1965	UK	Polanski, Roman	Roman Polanski at 80 season									London. Belgian manicurist, Carol, left alone when her sister goes on holiday, spends a week going mad. In Polanski's first English-language film, he captures early '60s London with a foreigner's eye as he locks us in with Carol from the first, forcing us to share her warped perceptions; the film terrifies by giving an audience a sense of what it's like to lose sanity.	957
958	26/09/13	Thu	Tess	1979	UK	Polanski, Roman	Roman Polanski at 80 season									This masterful adaptation of Hardy's Tess of the D'Urbervilles treats his story with respect. Yet Polanski never permits his film to become a devout rendering of a literary masterpiece, but a film that lives and breathes with a quick sympathy for its heroine, the victim of a malign fate and an unjust society; Polanski's best work takes a similarly pessimistic view of life.	958
959	08/10/13	Tue	Antonio's Breakfast (16 min)	1974	US	Polanski, Roman	Roman Polanski at 80 season									Set in early 20th C. Tension builds when the secret services decide to turn the situation to their advantage. Straddling the Israel-Palestine divide, this bittersweet tale benefits from tender, affecting performances, and a director who sensitivity handles both sides of the conflict as pressure steadily builds and the film develops into a gripping thriller.	961

963	28/11/13	Thu	Champagne	1928	UK	Hitchcock, Alfred						SL				Father-daughter tensions arise when a millionaire, suspecting his playgirl daughter's fiancé is a gold-digger, pretends the family fortune is gone. A bubbly comic parable built around Bafour's effervescent energy, the film is an early example of Hitchcock's long-term fascination with the foibles of the filthy rich (that were to him, one suspects, forever strange).	963

966	13/01/14	Mon	Vivan las Antipodas	2011	Ger Arg Neth Chil	Kossakovsky,Victor				DC				FL		Director Victor Kossakovsky takes a look at eight locations on Earth that sit opposite each other. A brightly original and, for once, entirely positive take on the planet Earth, Vivan las Antipodas! is standout documentary with the curious premise that, given the ocean mass, only a few inhabited places are exactly opposite each other on this planet, like Argentina and Shanghai, or Hawaii and Botswana. This exquisitely shot and produced travelogue compares not just places but the people, flora and fauna who are "upside down" from one another. Hypnotic traveling shots and twisted perspectives add another feather in the cap of prize-winning Russian cameraman and director Victor Kossakovsky.	966

969	11/03/14	Tue	Strawberry Fields	2012	UK	Lea, Frances										A witty, wacky, summer of love film set among the itinerant hat-picking community of a Kent hill, it traces Leah's micro-blogger story tens to two sisters, Camilla (Anna Madeley) and Emily (Christine Bottomley, from The Arbor), in a destructively suffocating relationship. They both seek refuge in the transitory world of strawberry pickers where a love rivalry brings out the worst in them. With remarkable access to real rituals and festivities in the stunning mountains of Laos, The Rocket is a unique view into a world never seen on film before.	970
971	24/04/14	Thu	Apartment, The	1960	US	Wilder, Billy	Quarterly Classic									Winner of 10 Oscars. A man tries to rise in his company by allowing his superiors to use his apartment for illicit trysts. Wilder and IAL Diamond's brilliantly witty screenplay has a serious undertow as it savages corporate ethics and conjugal infidelity. The humanity of the film resides in the sweet interplay between Lemmon and MacLaine; the development of their relationship from initial awkwardness to binding trust is beautifully acted out.	971
